

CoVE Application Form

This application form is the first step towards demonstrating your organisation interest in becoming a Centres of Vocational Excellence (CoVE) in advanced manufacturing for the aerospace and/or defence sectors or in cooperating within a CoVE network. It will allow you to be considered and participate in the CoVE at the regional, national, and European levels. At the end of the form you will receive immediate feedback about the status of your application. If not, please review the fundamental requirements and try again later to qualify as a CoVE for advanced manufacturing in the aerospace and/or defence sectors.

Please ensure that you read the application guide before starting to fill out the application form. Click the link to access the CoVEs guide.
